BAKER IS SCORED BY GOV. COX

National Superintendent Anti-Saloon League is Vigorously Denounced
BY CHIEF EXECUTIVE

Who Calls the Rev. Purley "Political Shyster," a "Moral Hypocrite" and "Blatherskite"—Defends the License Law.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Columbus, O., Nov. 13.—Governor Cox last evening gave out a statement vigorously attacking the character and motives of Rev. Purley A. Baker, national superintendent of the Anti-Saloon league, who on the previous day had assailed the governor as the champion of the new Ohio license law.

Rev. Mr. Baker was referred to as a "political shyster," "moral hypocrite," "blatherskite" and "pensioner on the old political machine." The governor referred to the fact that within a week the state license commission had put out of business hundreds of dives, infamous resorts and immoral houses. Governor Cox said: "Baker makes common cause with the dive keepers and gamblers who have been put out of business." The statement of the governor also says that the speaker has "cast a stain upon a great state, whose sovereign power has decreed that the license plan shall be adopted, that liquor traffic in wet counties shall be restrained and regulated."

The address of Rev. Mr. Baker created considerable surprise. In view of the statement made by Wayne B. Wheeler, Ohio superintendent of the league, following the passage of the license bill to the effect that the governor then had "aided in keeping certain regulations in the bill, which might have been defeated in the senate." The license law was said by Mr. Wheeler to contain a number of regulative features which would control the liquor traffic. He mentioned particularly that it reduced the number of saloons by 2000.

That Rev. Mr. Baker spoke only his own views, and not those of the league, was indicated yesterday by many personal expressions and disavowals from individuals. These were made to Governor Cox. Numerous ardent advocates of temperance in Ohio hold the governor in high esteem for his attitude in opposition to the small legislature measure, which was designed to increase the wet strength in the general assembly.

The governor's statement follows: "My attention has been directed to the statement made by one Purley Baker at the national temperance meeting now being held in this city. The political shyster and moral hypocrite is so well known in this state that it would be useless to pay any attention to anything he might say, but since he spoke to delegates coming from other states every propriety would suggest an answer."

"Baker avows that the state administration has, by regulation of the saloons through the license law, so conserved the interests of the breweries that they should pension the present governor after he leaves office. Baker was a pensioner so long on the old political machine in this state that he still seems to be obsessed with the thought of personal subsidy."

"He casts a stain upon a great state whose sovereign power has decreed that the license plan shall be adopted; that liquor traffic in wet counties shall be restrained and regulated. Within a week after hundreds of dives, infamous resorts and immoral houses have been driven out of the liquor business. Baker raises his voice in protest. Knowing the man by his past I am not surprised that this moral cleanliness should bring into play his slanderous tongue."

"He spoke, as he exclaimed, on his own behalf, and not for the organization to which he belongs. I shall, therefore, separate this movement of high purpose from the blatherskite who disgraces it in what I have to say. He contends that the saloon is a menace to society and yet the public officer who carries out the expressed desire of the people by laying the firm hand of the law in control and check on the liquor traffic is held up to public scorn. Baker thus makes common cause with the divekeepers and gamblers who have been driven out of business. The incident would seem to have its compensation in this automatically working out an interesting social classification."

TEACHER SUICIDES.
(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
New York, Nov. 13.—Anna Burnett, teacher in a public school in the Bronx, who committed suicide last night by jumping from the roof of the six-story apartment house in which she lived, was said today to have been worried to distraction by the antics of the boys in her class and by overstudy for advancement. Miss Burnett was only 24 years old.

Miss Huntington, Who Will Wed Richest Bachelor in the World, Vincent Astor

Vincent Astor, the richest bachelor in the world, just twenty-two years of age, has chosen a wife. He will wed his old playmate, Miss Helen Dinsmore Huntington, whose home is near that of his father, on the Hudson river, some miles north of New York City.

Young Astor might have had the pick of all the stage beauties in the world, or, for that matter, of any beauty in any part of the world, since a fortune of $55,000,000 has an attraction even for the "mammals of noble

Hobson is Endorsed for the Senate by Convention of Anti-Saloon League of America

LEAGUE RAISES $30,029 IN LESS THAN HALF HOUR

Yesterday's collection taken at the afternoon meeting at Memorial Hall resulted in raising $30,029. Of this amount $1600 was in cash, the remainder in pledges running over a period of five years. This is said to be the largest collection ever raised in Columbus. The entire transaction, including the address which preceded it, did not consume 30 minutes. The work of the collectors was under the direction of Colonel Worthington Kautzman. Men who have attended all the league's conventions said that never before had a collection been taken so quickly or so quietly.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Columbus, Nov. 13.—The resolutions committee of the Anti-Saloon League of America in convention here today endorsed the candidacy of Richard Pearson Hobson, of Alabama, for United States senator from that state over Oscar W. Underwood, majority leader in congress.

Donald C. McMullen, of Tampa, Fla., who introduced the resolution declared that he knew "Underwood's connection with the liquor interests made him an impossible candidate," from the Anti-Saloon League's point of view.

Former Governor J. Frank Hanley of Indiana, in a speech before the convention also endorsed the candidacy of Mr. Hobson.

Mr. Hobson, in a short address said he would be a candidate for the senate and pledged himself to fight for the federal amendment prohibiting the manufacture and sale of intoxicants.

Later on I shall come back to Ohio," Hobson continued, "and help you to make your state dry."

What is acknowledged to be a general slap at Secretary of State Bryan for his participation in the recent election of Blair Lee as United States senator from Maryland, over the opposition of the Anti-Saloon league, is contained in a resolution adopted by the convention today.

"When officials of the national government interfere in a state election, the people have a right to expect them to take care that the candidates for whose election they interfere upon national issues shall

Historic Spot Is Old Home of Gen. Rosecrans In Homer, This County

One of the historic spots in Licking county, seldom called to the attention of the visitor, and yet a point of national interest, is the house in Homer in which the celebrated Civil war commander, General W. S. Rosecrans lived for many years while a resident of this county.

The house is an old-fashioned structure set in the depth of a shaded grove in Homer. It was substantially built and was in the earlier day regarded as a country home of the first class. It is in good condition today.

DEATH TOLL OF SAILORS INCREASES

Twenty-Nine Bodies Have Been Recovered Up to Noon Today

MANY VESSELS GO DOWN

Loss of Big Freighter John A. McGean Confirmed; Had Crew of 28 Men—Overturned Derelict Still Unidentified.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Cleveland, Nov. 13.—The loss of the steamer John A. McGean, operated by the Hutchinson Steamship company here, was confirmed by officials of the company. The ship was sunk in Lake Huron. It is believed that Captain C. R. Ney and all of the crew of 28 men were drowned. The company has received dispatches from Goderich, Ont., saying three bodies were washed ashore there.

The company received a despatch from Coroner A. C. Hunter at Goderich which stated that the bodies of three men, which, lashed to a life raft, had been picked up there, had been identified. They were Seamen Thomas Stone, John Owen and Thomas L. Smith, all identified as on the company's payroll.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Cleveland, Nov. 13.—That a total of at least eleven vessels and 173 lives were lost in the great blizzard that enveloped the great lakes from Sunday until Tuesday is indicated in the compilation today of reports received from various points on the lakes.

In addition twenty-one other vessels were partially or wholly destroyed, their crews escaping.

The list of lost vessels and their dead is apportioned as follows:

J. A. McGean of Cleveland, crew of 28 lost somewhere off Sarina, Ont., in Lake Huron.

Charles S. Price of Cleveland, crew of 28, sunk off Goderich, Ont., in Lake Huron.

James S. Carruthers, of Toronto, crew of 25, wreckage washed ashore at Grand Bend, Ont., on Lake Huron.

Regina, of Ontario, crew of 20, capsized in Lake Huron.

Wexford, of Ontario, crew of 20, believed to have possibly collided with Regina and sunk in Lake Huron.

Leifield, Sault St. Marie, Ont., crew of 15, wrecked on Angus Island, Lake Superior.

Plymouth, Menominee, Mich., crew of 7, sunk off St. Martins Island.

Lake Michigan Lightship No. 28, crew of 6 sunk off Buffalo in Lake Erie.

Halsted, Chicago, crew of 6, aground near Green Bay, Wis.

M. F. Butlers, Milwaukee, crew of 15, believed foundered in Lake Superior.

William Nottingham, Cleveland, three of crew of 25 missing, wrecked near Sand Island, Lake Superior.

The list shows that Lake Huron exacted the heaviest toll of all the lakes.

In addition to vessels with all or part of their crews total losses, 21 vessels were wholly or partially wrecked whose crews escaped.

WARN HOUSEWIVES TO GUARD AGAINST THE SAND-STUFFERS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, Nov. 13.—Uncovering a trick of unprincipled dealers in chickens, the department of agriculture today issued a warning to housewives to be on their guard against sand-stuffed fowls. The government experts announce that the practice of stuffing chickens with sand is one that is assuming considerable proportions. The legitimate fattening of chickens for the market is applauded, but the department frowns on the weighing of fowls with the product of sand pits, and of the unprincipled poultry shippers it says: "Some of these poultry shippers, a day or two before the chicken is killed, feed it red pepper, which makes the chicken have an abnormal appetite, when they feed a mixture of fine sand and a little corn meal."

CITY RESUMES ITS NORMAL CONDITION

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Cleveland, Nov. 13.—Rain which fell last night ceased for a time, at least, this morning, and a thaw is progressing that is materially aiding the city in resuming its normal condition. The cessation of the rain has allayed fears of flood conditions. While there is a marked rise in the Cuyahoga river, it is not believed that the danger mark will be approached.

JAMES LARKIN RELEASED FROM DUBLIN PRISON

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Dublin, Ireland, Nov. 13.—James Larkin, leader of the Transport Workers Union was liberated today from Mount Joy prison where he was serving a sentence of 17 months for sedition. Larkin subsequently appeared at the labor headquarters in Liberty hall and the occasion was seized upon by his followers to make a remarkable demonstration. The transport workers have been on strike since early in December.

STRIKE THREATENED.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
London, Nov. 13.—The release of James Larkin from prison in Dublin has apparently served to intensify the bitter feeling in the labor world of the British Isles and a general strike of trades unionists throughout the United Kingdom is again threatened. The union men are determined to fight the labor dispute in London to a finish.

"I'm going to England to raise the fiery cross. In a few hours, there will be a general strike throughout Great Britain," Larkin told a huge crowd which assembled in front of Liberty hall after his release. He continued:

"We have fought successfully the strongest government of modern times. It made a mistake in sending me to prison. It has made a greater mistake in releasing me."

STATE COMMISSIONER IS INSPECTING ALL THE COUNTY BOARDS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Cincinnati, Nov. 13.—Charles L. Allen, a member of the state liquor license commission, visited the Cincinnati office of the Hamilton county liquor license board today on a tour of inspection which he is making of all the county boards. Mr. Allen stated that when he left Columbus Wednesday the state had received $450,000 in registration fees of $100 each in accordance with a provision of the liquor law. He also declared that in one day $142,000 in such fees were received. This is practically a clear profit for the state.

RELIEF VESSEL STARTS OUT ON AN EXPEDITION

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Cleveland, Nov. 13.—The steamer John W. Gates, one of the largest vessels in the Pittsburgh Steamship company's fleet, left here at 10 o'clock today on a relief expedition up the lakes to aid the score or more of vessels reported stranded. The Gates was filled with supplies of all kinds.

JUNK DEALER KILLED BY A LIVE WIRE

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Pittsburgh, Pa., Nov. 13.—A junk dealer was killed today by a live wire. The man, who was named Martin, was working on a live wire when he was struck and died at a hospital.

TRACK WALKER KILLED.

Zanesville, Nov. 13.—C. C. Clark, aged 55, of McConnelsville, was struck by a B. & O. locomotive while walking on the tracks here and died an hour later at a hospital.

FORMAL STATEMENT ON MEXICAN SITUATION IS PREPARED BY PRESIDENT

Was to Have Been Issued Today But Plans Were Changed After Receiving Dispatches From William Bayard Hale

LATTER IN CONFERENCE WITH CONSTITUTIONALISTS

United States Representatives Make Direct Move to Bring About Settlement of the Revolutionary Troubles of the Southern Republic—Final Appeal Has Been Made to Provisional President Huerta and Next Step May be Recalling of the American Envoys—Huerta Cannot be Located—Believed Ruse to Gain Time.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, Nov. 13.—President Wilson prepared a formal statement on the Mexican situation with the purpose of issuing it today, but just before noon, Secretary Tumulty announced that it would be withheld "for the present."

No reason for the change in the president's plans was given at the White House. Just before the issue of the proposed statement was postponed, however, Secretary Bryan received long dispatches from William Bayard Hale, who has been conferring with the Constitutionalists at Nogales, and from Charge O'Shaughnessy at Mexico City. Whether their contents had to do with the sudden change was not disclosed.

The statement was said at the White House to be informative in character and it was understood that it might outline the future policy of the United States.

Proposals made to the Mexican Constitutionalists through William Bayard Hale, President Wilson's personal representative and a final demand that the new Mexican congress be dissolved of its illegality transmitted through John Lind at Mexico City, brought the Mexican situation forward another step today.

Through the two official envoys, the United States, without the formality of addressing either faction directly has made another move to bring about a settlement of the revolutionary troubles of the southern republic.

While Mr. Hale was presenting a communication said to embody President Wilson's ideas and asking for definite assurances that the Constitutionalists would protect foreigners and their property and restore constitutional government if the embargo on arms were lifted Washington was making a final appeal to Huerta.

A rejection by Huerta might involve an abrupt termination of all relations with him, extending possibly to the withdrawal of American embassy officials.

The American government still is desirous that the revolution be settled by the contenders themselves but the international complications that have arisen in connection with disturbances in all parts of the republic and the threatened tangle over acts of a new congress which this government considers illegal are said to have prompted the Washington administration to seek definite assurances from the Constitutionalists.

Back of the efforts for an understanding with Carranza is said to be a hope on the part of Washington officials that the Constitutionalists will establish a government on terms of the closest friendship with the United States. Just what has been given Mr. Hale by President Wilson or Secretary of State Bryan is not disclosed here but the impression prevails that the United States wishes not only definite assurances of their purposes but some promise that they would conduct an early date a fair and free election.

Lifting the embargo on arms is one of the prominent possibilities of those familiar with the situation that the logical course to be pursued by the American government can arrive at a satisfactory understanding.

There is a hope on the part of many officials that the mere opening of negotiations with the Constitutionalists and extension of moral support to their cause may influence not only Huerta's retirement but the choice of a provisional president who would be acceptable to the Constitutionalists.

20 Persons Killed When Train Goes Through a Trestle; 250 are Injured

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Montgomery, Ala., Nov. 13.—Twenty persons were killed outright and 250 injured today when a Central of Georgia passenger train fell through a trestle near Clayton, Ala. Among the most seriously injured are Jeff Clayton, a brother of Congressman H. D. Clayton.

The train was carrying three hundred passengers to a street fair at Eufaula. Relief trains carrying physicians have been dispatched from Eufaula, Clio and Louiston.

The train carrying a capacity load of people bound to the county fair at Eufaula was behind time and moving rapidly. The engine and two coaches passed over the trestle in safety but the remaining three cars went through the elevated frame work and were wrecked. Relief trains have been dispatched to the scene from all directions.

GOOD WORK OF VARSITY TEAM IN PRACTICE

Snow Swept From Beaver Field and Denison Holds Daily
Scrimmages

Granville, Nov. 12.—Coach Livingston is very well satisfied with the showing the team made against Cincinnati last Saturday when the hopes of the down state team for a claim to the state championship were dispelled after a grueling contest in the mud. Cincinnati has a very strong team, but their attempts to break up Denison's forward passing was the cause of their downfall. The Red and Black are very strong in their pass work and very few passes were incomplete Saturday.

Bryant, Cincinnati's center, who has been touted as an all-Ohio possibility by Cincinnati scribes, was practically harmless. He was unable to cope with Reese in the finer points of the game and Reese often went through him to break up Cincy's plays. Reese showed special ability in covering Denison punts and tackled the recipient almost half the time without a gain.

The most promising feature of Saturday's contest with Cincinnati was the team work of the Baptists. Every cog in Livingston's great machine was working to perfection for the first time this season, and the prospects are bright for future successes.

Fenker, the star quarterback of Cincinnati, is undoubtedly the best man Denison has met so far. His dodging and footwork when running the ends were marvelous, and without a doubt he will be a strong candidate for the mythical all-Ohio eleven. He made 150 yards for the down-state eleven on end runs alone and showed great skill directing his attack.

The stellar work in the backfield by Roudelush, Williams and Hickman surpassed any exhibitions of line plunging displayed by the Baptists this season. Hickman was a demon when it came to bucking the line or breaking up plays and often broke up Cincinnati plays before they were fairly started.

Otterbein will play in Granville Saturday and although the weather is somewhat inclement Coach Livingston is having the team work out every afternoon. The snow has been scraped off the field and it is in fairly good condition for scrimmage.

Otterbein has several good men this season, their quarterback being noteworthy as he has displayed superior ability in past contests. The backfield and ends are also strong and will deserve extra attention. Although Oterbein has not displayed any remarkable ability to date due to green material at the beginning of the season, they are rapidly improving and a close contest will evidently be played when they are met on Beaver field Saturday afternoon.

Denison is maintaining its high standing in athletics which it has been reputed with in the past and all Newark football enthusiasts should make a special effort to witness the last contest that will be played in Granville this year. The team will go to Delaware one week from Saturday to play Ohio Wesleyan and on the following Tuesday will leave for Rochester, N. Y. to engage the strong team representing the University of Rochester. The Baptists have lost only one contest this year and every effort is being extended to complete the remainder of the season with a clean record.

Coach Livingston's crew of hustlers is somewhat hindered by the weather for evening practice. Signal practice was held in the snow on Beaver field Tuesday, but the thaw on Wednesday prevented further work and a large number of students aided in clearing the blanket of whiteness that covered the field. The effort was fairly successful and almost all of the snow has been removed and it is now up to Old Sol to put the field in condition for the contest with Oterbein Saturday.

The men are in fine condition for the game, but are very anxious to secure some hard scrimmage before the week end. A scrimmage will very likely be indulged in Thursday afternoon which will be followed by a stiff signal drill.

Several new plays will have to be perfected this week and next before Wesleyan is met at Delaware. They have secured the assistance of Branch Ricker, the present manager of the St. Louis Browns, and will work hard to trail the Baptist colors in the dust, but it is not thought they can do it.

The game with Oterbein Saturday will be a hard contest in every way, and will be well worth seeing. Previews to the game a cross-country meet will be held with Ohio State, which will start at 1:30 o'clock. Denison has a good cross-country team and will stand a good show of winning.

SAGE TEA KEEPS YOUR HAIR DARK

It's Grandmother's recipe to bring back color, thickness and lustre—Everybody is using it again.

Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advanced age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray and looks dry, wispy and scraggly, just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred fold.

Don't stay gray! Look young! Either prepare the tea at home or get from any drug store a recent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy." Thousand's of toils recommend this ready-made preparation, because it darkens the hair beautifully and removes dandruff, stops scalp itching and falling hair, besides, no one can possibly tell as it darkens so naturally and evenly. You moisten a sponge or soft brush with it, drawing this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, after another application or two, its natural color is restored and it becomes thick, glossy and lustrous and you appear years younger. Agents Hall's drug store.

COMMISSIONERS SEEK SOLUTION OF THE PROBLEM

Cost of keeping Newark prisoners in the county jail, caused county commissioners, in session Wednesday, to give serious consideration to the idea of contracting with some nearby workhouse to care for offenders.

Commissioners say the report for last month shows that 29 prisoners, from magistrates' courts in Newark, were confined in the county jail at a cost of nearly $500 to the county. Commissioners are not inclined to find fault with the necessary charges of Sheriff Slabaugh, but they are hoping to find a solution of the problem which gets so many city prisoners in the county jail for winter keeping.

These prisoners, not working or earning anything for the county, are a total loss to the treasury. Commissioners were wondering Wednesday, why the city prison cannot accommodate some of the regular winter boarders who seem to try for jail sentences.

It is not unlikely that commissioners may investigate the cost of a workhouse contract with some near county.

WARM WELCOME IS EXTENDED TO COL. ROOSEVELT

ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM

Buenos Ayres, Nov. 12.—Friendly enthusiasm was shown toward the United States at the banquet given here last night in honor of Colonel Theodore Roosevelt and the distinguished visitor himself was warmly welcomed. The national hymns of the United States and of the Argentine Republic were sung in a spirited manner while hundreds of women in the galleries threw great quantities of flowers down upon the floor of the banquet hall as part of the applause which followed Colonel Roosevelt's speech.

M. Frers, a member of the House of Deputies, who delivered the speech of welcome, referred to the visitor as "the defender of the integrity of the Americans," and after paying him the tribute of having entirely dispelled any feeling of suspicion that may have lurked among the Latin-American countries of the friendly advances of the United States, he said:

"We will be justified in calling him the great pacificator."

In his reply Col. Roosevelt defined the "Monroe Doctrine," explaining that it was not an international law but a policy of the United States for all America. He said times had changed since the adoption of that policy so that the Argentine was now a great modern nation which needed no protection and he added:

"I hope that the example of the Argentine will be emulated by all the other Latin-American republics and that they will all accept the Monroe doctrine as the leading article of their policy."

PENITENTIARY SENTENCE FOR DR. CRAWFORD

Dr. Daniel H. Crawford of Zanesville, known here, was sentenced Wednesday to an indeterminate term in the Ohio penitentiary. Sentence was imposed by Judge A. A. Frazier, following Dr. Crawford's confession, last week, to having performed an illegal operation on Mrs. Thomas Arthurs.

A sensation was created when the court, in passing sentence, said he had been informed by a reputable physician that at least two such operations were performed annually in Zanesville. Prosecutor Ribble was instructed to proceed at once with an investigation.

GOOD BOOKINGS FOR AUDITORIUM

The bookings for the Auditorium for the balance of November are all first class and a number of "treats" are in store for the patrons. After the close of the engagement of that masterpiece of motion photography, Sunday night, the Auditorium will be dark two days, and then come another grand exhibition of pictures in "The Princess of Baghdad," with Helen Gradner. On Friday, November 21 is "The Spendthrift" with a fine cast and production. Saturday matinee and night, November 22, "Fine Feathers." Monday, November 24, the return engagement of "Within the Law" with the same company that made such a fine impression when presented here on October 4. The Thanksgiving production will be announced later.

"Les Miserables."

"Les Miserables" will be seen at the Auditorium Theatre for a four days' engagement, starting tonight. Enacted by an all star cast picked from the leading theatres of Paris and its fidelity to the original novel is due perhaps to the fact that it is Hugo as interpreted by the greatest living French actors, transferred directly to the films.

The production consists of nine reels and requires three hours for its presentation. Into these nine reels are crowded every dramatic situation of note contained in the pages of the novel and no minor details of the plot are missing. The production is divided into three parts: "Jean Valjean," "Fantine" and "Cosette and Marius."

The holding of the close attention of the auditors to a silent play for a period of nearly three hours is something of an achievement in itself.

The photo drama opens with Jean Valjean's theft of a loaf of bread for his dying mother, takes him through his escape from prison to his rise to martyr of Montreuil, to his downfall through his sacrifice in saving an innocent man from suffering for him, through his 15 years of life in Paris with the girl "Cosette" and leaves him dying in the arms of Cosette and her husband Marius.

CLOTHES and CONFIDENCE

WHEN you buy a Coat, Suit, or Dress you must have confidence in your store; you are not an expert in tailoring or in fabrics. An inferior garment frequently looks nearly like a good one. That's where we protect you.

It is through the confidence of the public that we have built up our stores in this city and elsewhere. People have purchased, found that our clothes were up to and often exceeded our representations, and gave us their continued patronage. If there were a pure clothes law you would find no violations in our store.

Better Education for Business

Considering how many college men go into business, it often seems singular that more of the colleges do no specialize on scientific business training. The New York Chamber of Commerce was informed a few days ago by Mortimer L. Schiff, that $500,000 had been offered to found a College of Commerce. Here is one indication that business men feel that this gap in our educational system should be filled.

When a college fellow spends four years studying the literature of the ages, and spends the rest of his life tending a ribbon counter in a dry goods store, the tools and the man don't fit. Callings like this are very honorable and necessary. But when a man has set out to be a college professor or a lawyer, and ends up with operating a street car, there is a discrepancy between his mental experience and his physical surroundings that make him disgruntled and discouraged.

The average college man is called a nuisance around a business house for a year or two. He should have acquired certain regular habits of application, and should know something about the social, literary, and spiritual experience of the race. This makes him a more interesting man. But in the technique of trade, he is distanced by the office boy, which makes his early years of work peculiarly difficult.

Certain principles underlie business, which one must learn to achieve success. A man might labor 10 years before blundering on them. It seems cruelty to children to turn a bachelor of arts into the business world, without giving him psychology of salesmanship, methods of advertising, and cost finding.

Young Men in Politics.

This is the day of the young man in business and the professions. Hoary headed city fathers are found consulting deferentially some downy faced engineer from a technical school. Gray beards wait in the ante-rooms of highly educated but youthful medical specialists.

High political success for young men is still rather unusual. Some surprise is expressed that John Purroy Mitchell, newly elected mayor of New York city, is but 34 years old.

Alexander the Great, conquered the known world before he was 29. Mozart at 16 was called the greatest musical composer. But politics is a game where neither energy, enthusiasm, courage or professional education in schools is enough.

To win large success in politics a

Wisdom from Washington

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Nov. 13.—[Special.]—It is the prevailing belief that President Wilson will win in the caucus where he has failed in the banking and currency committee and that the currency bill will come out of the caucus as an administration measure. There were three Democrats strongly opposed to the administration bill in committee—Reed, Hitchcock and O'Gorman—but after patiently working with them the president reduced the number to one. Senator Hitchcock standing out.

Outside of the committee it is not believed the Democrats will generally oppose the bill, as none have expressed such set convictions as the three members of the committee who have been giving so much trouble. There are members of congress who think they see the first defeat for the president in his currency measure, but the president does not expect anything of the sort. And it may be confidently accepted that the president will have his way.

Keeping It Out of Politics.

There is an earnest effort to keep the Mexican imbroglio out of politics. Senator Bacon, chairman of the committee on foreign relations, holds frequent consultations with Senators Root, Burton, Sutherland and other Republican members of the committee when considering the situation. There are different views as to what ought to have been done and perhaps as to what should now be done, but whatever action is taken it may be assumed that congress, without regard to party, will be supporting the government now in power.

Federal Government and Strikes.

The senate investigated the West Virginia strike. An effort has been made to have the house investigate the Colorado strike, the Michigan strike and any other strikes of importance. The tendency is toward government regulation in such matters, whether it is purely a state affair or one in which the federal government could not take action save by stretching the constitution further than most strict constructionists would permit.

It was supposed that the new department of labor had a great deal of authority in the matter of strikes and labor troubles, but it appears that the mine operators in Colorado treated the department representative with scant courtesy and practically told him to go about his own business.

Power of Labor.

In everything that is done toward government supervision or intervention in labor disputes it is shown that the organized labor of the country is steadily gaining power. The congress and the executive departments go further now than ever before in such matters. Greater efforts are made to placate labor, and stronger laws in favor of labor have been enacted within the past few years. Labor organizations have no reason to complain of the influence which they exert in national affairs.

Looking Forward.

It is true that Colonel Goethals of Panama canal fame has been mentioned for the presidency, but it was a politician with a long look ahead who saw in the disagreement between Goethals and Bryan's man, McRae, the possibility of making the colonel the rival of Wilson in 1916. And yet that is the kind of "dope" that is being handed about in these days when there must be some sort of political pother.

Means a Sharp Contest.

The men who put through the provision for free tolls for coastwise ships intend to keep the canal free if they can possibly do so, even if the administration should decide upon a conciliatory policy toward England and recommend that all tolls be alike according to the treaty. While it was a Democratic house which voted for Free tolls, there was not then a Democratic president, and it will not require many congressional acrobatics for the house to reverse itself when a Democratic administration pulls the strings.

One Democratic house voted for a duty on wool; the next voted for free wool. There may be a few Democrats who will stand out against their administration, but the number is limited.

Guardian of Printing.

Senator Smoot is the guardian of printing. He makes it his business to see that every senator tells just what he is doing in the way of getting printing done. Neither matter for insertion in the Record nor for printing as a public document can get by without an explanation to Smoot. The Utah senator has been rather stiff in regard to printing, has held up quite a number of things, and there seems to be some irritation in the senate on account of it. Mutterings have been heard, but there has been no real outbreak.

British railway earnings decreased last year. The loss was due in part to greater use of motorbuses, tramways and automobiles.

Jonah's Hard Luck.

Deep anguish made his heart-strings quiver while Jonah rode inside the whale; he sat upon the monster's liver, and fanned himself, and made his wail: "It is enough to make me surely, to fill my eyes with briny tears; I'm pulling off this stunt too early by something like three thousand years. I feel distraught and discontented. I cannot cash my growing fame; Chautauquas have not been invented, there is no moving picture game. The whale swims on, all grim and tireless, and brings no solace to my view: I haven't even got the wireless, to send the signal, P. D. Q. I have no doubt, in times far distant, in some remote and future age, a man like me, if then existent, could go and elevate the stage: could go and do some monologuing, and take in rolls of good long green, with publishers his footsteps dogging, to hire him for some magazine. But when at last on shore I've landed, belched up by this old mangy whale, the natives there will find me stranded, and naught in view to bring me kale. "So I must ride from here to Sydney, the staled joyride ever sprung." Then he kicked loose the whale's left kidney, and made a puncture in its lung.

Strengthen Our Army

We Need Trained Men

By GEORGE E. CHAMBERLAIN

Senator From Oregon

AS LONG AS WE MAINTAIN THE MONROE DOCTRINE, RETAIN THE PHILIPPINES, CONTROL THE PANAMA CANAL AND DOMINATE THE PACIFIC, WHICH IS OUR MANIFEST DESTINY, WE MUST HAVE AN ARMY ADEQUATE TO CARE FOR THESE CONDITIONS AND MEET EMERGENCIES.

No one advocates a large standing army in this country, but we ought to have as a military organization an army of EFFICIENT OFFICERS AND DRILLED MEN which can be AUGMENTED BY TRAINED MEN from a reserve and supplemented by the national guard of the states.

There has been a great deal of general discussion as to the necessity of better preparation for sudden war emergencies, and there seems to be quite a unanimous opinion that at the present time our army is wholly INADEQUATE owing to the methods that have been employed.

WE OUGHT NOT TO LEAVE OURSELVES IN AN ATTITUDE WHERE WE FEAR THE POSSIBILITY OF INVASION BY JAPAN ON THE PACIFIC COAST OR BY ANY OTHER FOREIGN COUNTRY ON OUR ATLANTIC COAST NOR IN APPREHENSION AS TO WHAT MIGHT HAPPEN TO OUR TROOPS IN CASE OF INTERVENTION IN MEXICO BECAUSE THE ARMY IS INADEQUATE FOR EMERGENCIES.

At all events, it seems certain that the country is BECOMING AWARE OF THE UNPREPARED CONDITION OF OUR ARMY and will sustain congress in making such changes as seem necessary to place the army upon a footing to meet emergencies and secure the honor and integrity of the nation.

MAN AGED 74 GOES TO PEN

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Columbus, Nov. 13.—His shoulders stooped by the weight of 74 years, Daniel Smith, of Darke county was received at the penitentiary today to serve an indeterminate sentence for cutting with intent to wound. For the past 16 years Smith was an inmate of the Darke county infirmary. He attacked the superintendent of that institution. Smith suffered a partial stroke of paralysis several years ago and is now practically an invalid.

ARRANGING FOR A ROUSING MEETING OF BOARD TRADE

The committee on arrangements for the public meeting to be held next Tuesday, viz, Messrs. H. P. Scott, W. C. Wells, O. J. Barnes and William E. Miller, will meet tonight at 7:30 at the Board of Trade offices to lay their plans. It is expected that arrangements will be made for an orchestra, quartette and also that the Buckeye band will furnish music prior to the meeting. The platform and auditorium will be decorated and everything will be done to make this a long remembered occasion.

The committee on constitution and by-laws, Messrs. Carl Norpell, J. R. Fitzgibbon and W. M. Morgan will meet Friday at 4:30 p. m. to take up their work and will report next Tuesday evening.

The committee on nomination of officers will meet Friday evening at 7:30 to make up their list of officers and also report at the big meeting. Messrs. Charles L. Flory, Charles W. Montgomery and Louis R. Carl are this committee.

Big posters of the meeting Tuesday evening are being put up all over town and every effort will be made to give it the widest publicity. Several unique and interesting "stunts" will be booked for Tuesday evening and everyone will be given a treat. The election of officers will be the first thing and the general business. Seats will be set aside for the members and they will be asked to aid in giving the meeting a snappy trend. The Junior Board of Trade has been invited to come in a body and see how the older board conducts the annual meetings. Short speeches will be made by local and out of town visitors and the program will be interspersed with music and other features.

ORPHEUM THEATRE PROVING POPULAR WITH ITS PATRONS

Mr. J. L. Evans, general manager of the Athenian Amusement Company having a string of theatres through Virginia, West Virginia and Ohio, is arranging some excellent bookings for the Orpheum theatre in this city. The Athenian company lately took over the local Orpheum theatre and will endeavor to give Newark lovers of vaudeville some of the best acts obtainable. The pretty Arade theatre will be under the direct supervision of Manager Evans who has had many years experience in the theatrical field, even though he is comparatively a young man.

The acts for the first half of the present week were to have left Cleveland Sunday and open here Monday but this was impossible on account of the severe blizzard which tied up all traffic in the Forest City. However two splendid acts will open today. Moore and Hall will appear in a singing and talking stunt and they are said to be very clever. The Brookes in a novelty musical act are just off the big vaudeville time in the east. The harp and violin are featured and this act will be worth the price of admission. The pictures will be up to the usual standard and the bill throughout will provide a pleasing evening's entertainment.

Manager Evans will arrange for several novelty features which he proposes to provide for his theatrical patrons during the present season and under his regime the popular little vaudeville house will be the mecca for all those who are fond of a diversity of entertainment.

Mrs. Charles Banc (Marguerite Platto) and infant son of Akron, O., are visiting at the home of Mrs. Banc's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Platto of West Church street.

Society

The following party took luncheon at the Sherwood Hotel Wednesday: Mrs. C. W. Miller, Mrs. C. A. Hollander, Mrs. Robbins Hunter, Mrs. C. H. Stinson, Mrs. F. S. Mosteller, Mrs. D. B. McNair, Mrs. Malcolm Baker and Miss Louise Hunter.

The Wednesday Evening Bridge club entertained yesterday evening at the home of Miss Mame Heiple at her home in West Church street. Dinner was served at 6:30 o'clock and the card game followed.

Miss Esther Graef entertained with 6 o'clock dinner on Sunday evening at her home in Clinton street. The table was arranged in pink and white, the center piece being of roses.

The following were guests: Misses Louise Kuster, Marie and Mildred Kuster, Messrs. Raymond Hoot, Howard Jackson, Carl Nutter and Clem Dotter of Columbus.

The Progressive club members and a few guests were delightfully entertained on Wednesday afternoon by Miss Helen Tucker at her home in East Main street. The following program was given from the calendar: Quotations—Famous Cathedral. Church Music and the Development of the Opera—Mrs. Charles Allen. The Organ—Mrs. Grove Montgomery.

Miss Tucker entertained the guests with dinner at the Episcopal church.

Announcement has been made of a meeting of the Executive Board of the City Federation of Women's Clubs which will be held in the parlors of the Y. W. C. A. on Friday morning, promptly at 9 o'clock. It is especially desired by the organization that all officers of the organization, the presidents of all the clubs and directors of all the clubs of the city, be present, and as many club members as desire are invited to be present.

WRIGHT—DIEBOLD.

On Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock was solemnized the marriage of Miss Emma Diebold and Mr. Clark Wright. The wedding took place at the parsonage of St. Francis de Sales church and was performed by Rev. Father B. M. O'Boylan. The bride was attended by Miss Lucille Maybold, while the groom's best man was Mr. Leo Diebold. The bride wore a tailored suit of blue.

Mr. and Mrs. Wright will be at home at 85 South Fifth street. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Diebold of South Fifth street, while the groom is an employee of the Wehrle company.

WILEY—MCCRACKEN.

At the residence of the officiating minister at 5:30 o'clock Wednesday evening, Lee B. Wiley and Miss Carrie M. McCracken were united in marriage. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John McCracken while the bridegroom is a son of John Wiley. Both live near Clay lick. Mr. Wiley is an employee of the oil fields. The young people will go to house-keeping near Clay lick.

The Pastime Sewing circle met at the home of Mrs. George Steen on Summit street on Wednesday afternoon. The time was spent in sewing, after which lunch was served to the following guests: Mesdames Roy Price, Louis Trout, Ellwood Harper, Arthur Engle, Jacob Heines, Miss May Neagle.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Jacob Heines.

MYER—JONES.

A very pretty wedding marked by the greatest simplicity was solemnized at the Jones home in Buckingham street Wednesday evening, when Miss Margaret Jones, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan R. Jones was united in marriage to Mr. Ernest L. Myer of Hebron.

The wedding service was read at 8 o'clock, by the pastor of the Plymouth Congregational church, Mr. F. E. Holloway. The parlor where the wedding took place was banked with palms, ferns and white chrysanthemums. The bride was gowned in white crepe de chine with lace trimmings and wore aigrettes in her hair. She carried a bouquet of bride's roses. The bride was attended by Miss Ruth Pence of Hebron, who wore a lace robe of white over yellow. The groom was attended by his brother, Mr. Dillon Myer.

Following the ceremony a wedding dinner was served, the table being centered with a willow basket filled with white chrysanthemums. All the appointments were in white and green. Covers were laid for sixteen. Mr. and Mrs. Myer left for a trip south, the bride's traveling suit being of brown. They will reside near Hebron on their return. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Myer of Hebron.

On Thursday afternoon Mrs. L. B. Dunn entertained the ladies of the Missionary society. A splendid report of the convention was read by the delegates. Mrs. Doris Duthmer and Mrs. Joseph Watson, who attended the convention which was held at Springfield, after which an interesting program was rendered as follows:

Recitation—Miss Lois Wolfe.

Select reading—Mrs. J. W. L. Motherspaw.

Reading—Mrs. Jos. Moran.

A fine luncheon was served the members and visitors. The next meeting will be with Mrs. J. Hurst on December 4.

Ladies, remember this is our Big Clearance Sale Week. Trimmed Hats and all other millinery will be sold cheap. We are getting in new hats every day that will be sold at the low prices. Clouse & Schawwer, 42 Hudson avenue 11-35.

In view of the surplus of $100,000 shown in the municipal accounts, the 2,000 citizens of Klingenberg, Germany, were not only absolved of all taxation for the year, but were each presented with a sum of money from the town treasury.

COLUMBUS MAN AND YOUNG GIRL HELD IN JAIL

Authorities Say Bartlett Married Twice—Girl Under 16, and Man Is 26.

Howard Bartlett, 26, and Hazel Fink, 16, are both being held here in the county jail awaiting advice from Columbus police authorities who have been endeavoring to locate the pair for two months. It is said. Authorities declare Bartlett is wanted in Columbus for non-support of a wife and family.

Bartlett and his girl companion were arrested at the home of a woman said to be a friend, at 113 Popular avenue, here at 5:30 Wednesday afternoon by juvenile Officer John Dwyer and Police Patrolman Gorman, and placed in jail where they spent the night.

Marriage license records of probate court show that a license was issued to Bartlett and the Fink girl on November 3, when Bartlett gave the clerk his age as 26, and the girl's age as 19. It is said Bartlett told the clerk he never had been married. Both are said to be from Columbus, although both gave Newark as their home.

There are reasons to believe Bartlett will face two charges, one of bigamy and the other of a statutory nature.

The pair expressed surprise that they were so rudely annoyed by the officers when the latter took them into custody, and they expressed themselves as confident their difficulty would be straightened out.

Local authorities believe Bartlett is booked for early prosecution and conviction.

For some time juvenile Officer Dwyer had been on the lookout for the couple, acting jointly with the local police. Late Wednesday a tip came from an authentic source and the officers acted so quickly the couple could not have escaped, they say.

BASEBALL BOARD OF ARBITRATION HAS MANY CASES

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Columbus, Nov. 13.—When the national baseball convention delegates went into session at 10:30 this morning it was not definitely settled whether the business of the convention could be concluded in time to permit adjournment tonight as originally intended. A banquet last night took the place of a night session.

With more than 100 cases to consider the national board of arbitration will go into session this afternoon and an effort will be made to pass on all of them before adjournment. Thus far about three dozen claims have been passed on by the board.

Nashville and Omaha are fighting hard to become the convention city for next year. The claims of Indianapolis have been urged but it was said today that the representatives of that city were now centering their efforts on capturing the convention for 1914.

It was asserted today that Nashville is leading in the contest for next year's convention. The matter will be settled today.

Manager William Friel of the St. Paul club of the American Association even if he failed to close any deals for ball players.

The Saints have closed with Omaha and Sioux City for a series in the spring. Friel will also take his team over to St. Joseph, if possible, to fill in some of the time there.

E. S. Barnard, representing the Cleveland club, arrived last night. He denies the story that Toledo may get Bradley as manager of the team in 1914.

The committee in charge of entertainment of the delegates today urged them to take plenty of time in their deliberation and to continue the convention's sessions as long as possible, giving assurance that entertainment time would not be lacking. This committee also urged that inasmuch as many of the delegates were late in arriving because of the snow storm earlier in the week, that this was an additional reason why they should not be in any haste to depart.

Grover Land, catcher for the Toledo team, was this afternoon released to the Indianapolis club.

Catcher Kelley, of Pittsburgh, formerly the catching partner of Marty O'Toole, was sold to Toronto.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Columbus, Nov. 13.—President Bassett of the K. T. League acting as the representative of the Paducah, Ky. club sold outfielder Burgess to Beaumont of the Texas League.

One Dodd, who served with the Columbus American Association team as utility man during part of the 1913 season was today released. Dodd, who comes originally from the Texas League, goes back to that organization, the San Antonio club having taken him over.

It is understood that several deals are pending between Major League and Association clubs. Milwaukee is after an infielder to replace Blackburn, who was recalled by the Chicago Americans. Several overtures were made to major league magnates by Harry Clarke and Louis Nabin, Milwaukee representatives at the meeting, but no agreement was reached. Hoyak is said to be the man for whom both clubs were laying their line.

Messrs. Charles D. Linehan and James Gold of Steubenville have returned home after visiting friends in this city for a few days.

B. F. Dickinson of Kokomo, Ind., who has been spending some time in Newark, left on Wednesday for Washington, D. C.

Personal

Mrs. Frank Frost of 24 West Main street is able to be out after a week's illness.

J. L. Young of Bratton, Mass., was a business visitor in Newark on Wednesday.

C. W. Hammond of Columbus is looking after business interests in Newark today.

Miss Mary Handel of North avenue is spending a few days the guest of friends in Piqua.

Edward Ottman of Ohio was in Newark looking after business interests Wednesday.

Mrs. W. C. Rugg has returned home after spending a week with friends and relatives at Mansfield.

Mrs. Susie Connors left Wednesday for Cleveland where she will spend a few days.

Mrs. Elizabeth Leonard of West Church street, has returned home after visiting her niece in Akron for a few days.

KOO TAH TEMPLE HOLDS INITIATION AND FINE BANQUET

Over 100 Newark Knights of Khorassan, with the celebrated team and 55 members of Bakoo Temple, No. 28, of Columbus, were assembled in K. of P. hall, Ankele block, Wednesday night to witness and participate in the ceremonies attending a rejuvenation of Koo Tah Temple, No. 101.

The local temple, organized in 1901, has taken on new life and will have plenty of activities during the winter. The eight candidates initiated Wednesday night were: F. J. Woodcock, Fred Schoneberg, Charles F. Dean, William Johnson, H. S. Kirkpatrick, H. Wiseman, J. T. Stroud and A. G. Smith.

The work was put on by the Bakoo Temple team, which has won more prizes than any team in the United States. Capt. A. L. Fry, drillmaster, has a diamond medal presented to him in Ashville, N. C., for having the best drill team in the United States. Capt. Fry is also imperial secretary.

The initiatory work was followed by a social session, and music was furnished by the K. of P. orchestra. Officers of Koo Tah Temple are: Royal Vizier, Fred Ankele; Grand Emir, George Conway; Venerable Sheik, C. L. H. Long; Mahedi, Phil Vogelmeier; Mokanna, James Crisswell, and Joe, W. E. Fulton.

The next temple meeting is to be held Friday night, Nov. 21, and on Dec. 19 a big ceremonial will mark the initiation of several more candidates.

Many members of the local temple will go to Columbus Nov. 19, to attend the ceremonial banquet to be given by Bakoo Temple, No. 28.

TWO YOUNG MEN WERE INVOLVED IN SERIOUS TROUBLE

By the merest margin, two young men recently located in Newark, escaped probable servitude in the penitentiary, Thursday afternoon, when Probate Judge Robbins Hunter accepted their pleas of guilty to an offense under the juvenile law, in which a 16-year-old girl was the accusing witness.

The young men were each sentenced to pay the costs of prosecution and to serve thirty days in the county jail. The jail sentence in each case was suspended during good behavior and the young men were released.

The girl was severely lectured by the court and her parents were included in the general warning that the girl must stay away from dances, cut out her former associates, keep off the streets after 9 o'clock at night, and report regularly to juvenile court. To make this warning binding Judge Hunter sentenced the girl to a term in the Girls' Industrial School at Delaware, but suspended the sentence on condition that she keep her promise to the court.

The parents were warned that in the future they should be more strict with their daughter and not trust her so implicitly. The girl confessed that part of her improper relations were carried on in her home after her parents had permitted her to entertain young men callers.

Prosecutor J. Howard Jones was called in consultative relative to prosecuting the young men under the criminal statutes, after the girl made affidavit to the effect that one of the defendants had forcibly assaulted her. The prosecutor found circumstances in connection with the case which he believed did not warrant him in proceeding under the criminal statutes. Therefore, the matter was left in the discretion of the court, who proceeded to arraign the young men under the juvenile law.

The girl has been the object of observation by juvenile Officer Dwyer for some time, he told the court. She is pretty and vivacious, and has been traveling with undesirable associates, according to Officer Dwyer's statement to the court.

REPAIRS START AT ONCE ON THE FRANKLIN BLDG.

The ashes on the fourth floor of the Franklin building were hardly cold before preparations were being made to restore the building to its former condition. Contractor W. P. Ferguson was on the job with a force of carpenters Thursday morning, making temporary repairs until the insurance adjusters arrive and complete their work.

The estimate of $10,000 damage to the building, as was given in Wednesday's Advocate is not regarded as far out of the way, according to those who have inspected the building.

Mr. Ferguson states that as soon as the work of the adjusters is completed, he will commence at once to remodel the entire building. It will be placed in first class condition.

Tenants in the building have been securing other quarters today. J. F. Gaffner, tailor, and H. H. Shauck, insurance agent, have leased quarters over the City Drug Store, recently occupied by the Republican City Executive Committee. Judge J. M. Swartz removed to Room 906 Newark Trust Building.

Photographer W. A. Smith stated this afternoon that his plans for the future were uncertain. He will probably again occupy the fourth floor of the building as soon as it is remodeled.

Everything used in his business was destroyed in the fire. He lost a highly prized library which occupied a corner of his studio.

Wednesday morning, while spectators were passing through the burned building, some one entered the apartments of Mrs. Smith and took her pocketbook from her dresser. It contained a little more than $10 in money, all of which had been lost. Mrs. Smith escaped with but two dresses and Mr. Smith saved nothing except the clothing he could seize as he left the burning structure. Mrs. Smith would appreciate the return of the money.

Newton's "Observatory."

There is an interesting mystery associated with 35 St. Mary's street, once the home of Sir Isaac Newton, which is now in the property market. On the roof there used to be a curious structure made almost entirely of glass, and for many years this was confidently believed to have been Sir Isaac Newton's observatory. Fanny Burney, whose father, the noted musician, Dr. Charles Burney, was at one time an occupier of the house, occasionally used the erection as a study, and in her memoirs of her father she refers to it as Newton's observatory. In 1855 doubt was cast upon the story by John Timbs in his "Curiosities of London." He asserts that the observatory was built by a subsequent tenant, a Frenchman. It has been further declared that this Frenchman not only built the room, but also equipped it with various instruments and then, claiming that it was the observatory of Newton, charged a fee for admission to view.—Westminster Gazette.

If He Were Knighted.

The lecturer was known as Professor Key, and a very genial, nice old fellow he was. In fact, he was a remarkable contrast to most of these dry as dust old gentlemen and would often introduce into his lecture interesting facts concerning the manners and customs of the countries he had visited.

On this particular morning his subject was Spanish history, and he felt it was necessary to illuminate his discourse.

"As no doubt you know, gentlemen," he said, "when a man attains to eminence in Spain he is knighted, but then he is known not as 'sir,' but as 'don.'"

"Then I suppose, sir," gravely said the young man who always insisted on being funny, "if they knighted you, you would become a Don-Key!"—London Tit-Bits.

Profitable Beauty.

That "beauty of beauties," Mme. Recamier, would sometimes become a beggar for the poor, and it was good for the poor. At the Easter fetes of 1801, celebrated in the Church of St. Roch, the priest asked Mme. Recamier to act as collector. She accepted.

A returned emigrant, M. de Thiard, was her cavalier. The task was no sinecure. To walk around the church through the enormous crowd occupied more than an hour. Another hour was occupied in counting the receipts, which amounted to 20,000 francs. From each lip came a cry of admiration at the marvelous beauty of the young collector. As she advanced step by step through the church these cries were translated into pieces of gold for the poor and many pieces of verse to offer to the fair collector—"A Great Coquette."

Laughing.

Laughing is a series of short expiratory blasts which, acting upon the vocal chords, lend force for the purpose, cause certain sounds of various pitch. The differences in the sound of the laughter of different individuals is largely due to the varying vibrations of the larynx and pharynx. It has been noted that many in a family "have the same laugh," possibly because of similar throat formations. It also is an imitative process.—New York World.

A Tale of Tips.

When Guizot, the great French historian, was staying at Windsor castle in 1840 he wrote to his daughter that he had won over £20 at the Ascot meeting: "Twenty-three sovereigns for me, which will balance the £20 I had to spend in fees to the servants at Windsor castle."

Thousands of Women

Have Been Restored to Health By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

There is no doubt about this fact. Why? during the last 30 years we have published in the newspapers of this country volumes of letters from women who have been relieved of all their suffering by the timely aid of this grand old medicine. Letters like the following, true, genuine and honest expressions of gratitude coming from grateful hearts. Surely you can believe these women.

Mrs. L. S. BRENNER, Hudson, Mich., says:—

"Sometime ago I was taken with a terrible pain in my right side, such sharp pains just like a knife sticking me. I tried hot applications but that did no good. I went to our family doctor (we were living in Fayette, Ohio, at that time) and he said it was organic inflammation. I doctored with him a while but kept getting worse. The pain was so terrible I could hardly stand on my feet. I would have the sharp pain in my right side, and a dull heavy pain the whole length of my limbs. I realized that something had to be done quickly, so I looked up all of your advertisements I could find, and saw several that described my case. I got a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it helped me from the first dose, and when I had taken two bottles my trouble was gone. Your medicine has done so much for me that I am willing you should publish this letter for the sake of other suffering women."—Mrs. L. S. BRENNER, Hudson, Michigan.

Mrs. L. E. BOWERS, Girard, Pa., says:—

"I take pleasure in informing you of what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I had a sick spell last February, and for some months after that I was not regular and had many bad feelings. I was tired all the time and had dull headaches, and had no appetite, and also what the doctor called organic inflammation. Your Vegetable Compound has entirely cured me and I feel that too much cannot be said in its praise as I am now able to do my own work. You are perfectly welcome to use my testimonial for the benefit of others."—Mrs. L. E. BOWERS, E.F.D. No. 1, Girard, Pa.

Mrs. ELIZABETH GENTILCORE, Buffalo, N.Y., says:—

"I feel that I must write to you about your wonderful remedies. About ten years ago I was troubled with female weakness and was all run down. I was tired all the time and could hardly walk without feeling dizzy. I heard about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, took it, and also used the Sanative Wash. I got stronger, and have not had those dizzy spells since. I feel that I owe my health to you, and hope your remedies will help others as they have me. I tried most everything I heard of, and yours are the best medicines for women's ailments."—Mrs. ELIZABETH GENTILCORE, 26 Glor Street, Buffalo, New York.

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No one sick with woman's ailments does justice to herself if she does not try this famous medicine made from roots and herbs, it has restored so many suffering women to health.

Write to LYDIA E. PINKHAM MEDICINE CO. (CONFIDENTIAL) LYNN, MASS., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

IN HOLIDAY SPIRIT

By BARBARA BOYD

A Campfire Party.

One of the pleasantest entertainments for the early autumn is a camp-fire party. If the hostess has passed the summer in the woods and has collected a quantity of birch bark, which she does not object to using in this way, it is in keeping with the spirit of the affair to send out the invitations on a piece of birch bark. Or if she does not wish to do this, and yet wants to give a spice of novelty to her cards of invitation, she can, if she is skillful with the brush, decorate them with sketches of pine cones, rocks, fir trees, or other appropriate illustrations.

It would also be in keeping with the spirit of the affair for the guests to come in camping costume, if this can be arranged. And such dress helps along the spirit of informality that reigns at such a gathering.

An open grate is almost an essential, even though it may be but a gas log; but lacking this, the hostess, if she wishes to, can simulate a camp fire in one end of the room by having a hollowed-out log and candles arranged in it. But this is a poor substitute and so palpably artificial, that it is a question if it had better not be omitted.

Of course, the entertainment for the evening consists in gathering about the open fire and telling stories of the camp and trail. If any one of the crowd can play the guitar or banjo or any other musical instrument that belongs to camp life, so much the better. Singing of camp-fire songs also adds to the pleasure of the affair.

A camp-fire romance can be written, as one of the features of the evening. Pieces of paper and pencils are passed, and the game is played somewhat similarly to "Consequences." A girl's name, one of the campers of course, is first written, and the incident that made the two acquainted, the name and a slight description of the camp, what the two did during the camping trip, and finally a thrilling accident that shall play an important part in the story, and the close. Such a romance is often quite laughable.

For refreshments, the table can be decorated very appropriately with a silver birch log with holes in it, in which candies are inserted. This can be used as a centerpiece, and repeated again at each end of the table. Miniature tents from the peaks of which floats a flag inscribed with the guest's name can be used as favors or place cards, if the guests are to be seated.

It would also be in keeping to serve the refreshments in true camp style, using aluminum or enameled ware dishes, and to pass around some of the favorites of the camp menu, such as erbwurst soup in place of bouillon, baked beans, doughnuts and such articles. But many a hostess will not care to sacrifice the opportunity to display pretty china and to serve dainty refreshments for evening parties.

If a crowd that has been camping together can gather for such an evening, it will be most enjoyable. But most of us would welcome an invitation to such an affair, for there are few whose blood does not tingle and the pulses leap at the thought of outdoors and the lure of the trail.

WARNING ISSUED AGAINST THE USE OF RUBBER HOSE

Property owners and householders are specially warned now with the advent of winter, against the use of rubber hose as a gas connection. It is one of the "always safe" dangers that the state fire marshals department is exerting its greatest effort against. State Deputy Fire Marshal John Baird is taking this means of issuing a general warning to people everywhere who burn gas. The rubber hose for gas connection on stoves, lights, or anything else is an invitation to the fire fiend. Its use is a deliberate violation of state law and of the rules of the fire marshal's office, besides being a menace to life and property. Fire insurance companies don't have to pay losses where it can be shown a rubber hose gas connection was used. Use of such a connection in a residence or business place is a needless risk of human life and inspectors from the state department are compelled to follow warnings with prosecutions in cases where persons do not care enough about their own welfare and their property to eliminate such an unnecessary risk. So, SUBSTITUTE GAS PIPE FOR THE RUBBER HOSE, AT ONCE.

PEACEWAKER IS SHOT.
Marysville, Nov. 12.—E. A. Marnon, chief for a gang of 20 men engaged in laying a sewer at the Woman's reformatory, was accidentally shot near the heart yesterday, when he tried to wrest a revolver from a laborer, who, it is said, had threatened another workman. It is not believed that the wounds will prove fatal.

FOR DANDRUFF, FALLING HAIR OR ITCHY SCALP--25 CENT DANDERINE

Girls! Girls! Save your hair! Make it grow luxuriant, beautiful—a delightful dressing.

If you care for heavy hair, that glistens with beauty and is radiant with life; has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and lustrous, try Danderine.

Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff; you cannot have nice, heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scurf robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots famish, loosen and die; then the hair falls out fast.

If your hair has been neglected and is thin, faded, dry, scraggy or too oily, get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine at any drug store or toilet counter; apply a little as directed and ten minutes after you will say this was the best investment you ever made.

We sincerely believe, regardless of everying else advertised, that if you desire soft, lustrous, beautiful hair and lots of it—no dandruff—no itching scalp and no more falling hair—you must use Knowlton's Danderine. If eventually—why not now?

HOBSON

not be out of harmony with the people upon moral issues in that state," the resolution reads. Members of the resolutions committee of which Governor Hanley of Indiana is chairman, admit it is intended to apply to "situations similar to that in Maryland."

The resolutions urged an amendment to the federal constitution providing for national prohibition, declare license regulations "inadequate to exterminate the liquor traffic" and government tax of the liquor business wrong. Congress is urged to enact a law forbidding the use of mails to the liquor traffic for advertising or soliciting the purchase of intoxicating liquors in dry territory. This would apply to news papers and periodicals publishing liquor advertisements as well as to circulars sent out by liquor dealers. State legislatures are asked to pass anti-liquor shipping law "in order that federal legislation relating to the interstate shipment of intoxicating liquors may be made effective."

The league showed by resolution that it has no connection with any political party but will support candidates of any party who support prohibition of the liquor traffic.

Among the speakers at the convention this morning were: Rev. Sherman Cooledge, noted Arapahoe Indian clergyman; George D. Shelby, Portsmouth; and Clinton N. Howard, Rochester, N. Y.; and Mrs. Ella A. Poole, president of the W. C. T. U. of New York and Rev. Daniel Poling, former prohibition candidate for governor of Ohio.

Speaking before the national convention of the Anti-Saloon league, Judge Charles A. Pollack of Fargo, N. D., said in part:

"North Dakota, with an experience of nearly a quarter of a century, continuously, under constitutional and statutory prohibition, sends greetings to her sister states of the union."

"North Dakota was admitted to the union in November, 1889. It has been our privilege for the past 22 years to have had a small part in fighting the saloon in that territory and state."

"And now we come to join hands with citizens from all the states in the union to find out if possible what is the next move against the liquor traffic."

"Resolved: That the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors as a beverage shall be forever prohibited in any place over which floats the American flag."

"It is moved that this sentiment be made a part of the constitution of the United States."

"This is the next move which in the orderly development of affairs, in dealing with the liquor traffic as a nation, we are now ready to make. Some there are, who, impatient of delay, for years have adopted this slogan. We take off our hats to the splendid courage of the invincible fighter who gathers comfort from successive defeats and whose greatest delight is exhibited in a renewal of the conflict. From a different viewpoint of the methods and policies best calculated to destroy an admitted evil, and with an intensity of purpose not second to that possessed by any comrade in the field, a host of life-long and militant opposers of the saloon seek to join hands at this moment with all lovers of good government in declaring that the time has now arrived when the fighting forces of the several states have won sufficient local victories to warrant a general advance against the greatest foe of humankind."

Daniel C. McMullen, of Tampa, Fla., speaking before the convention said in part:

"We are going to write here a second declaration of independence. And in the language of that immortal document of 1776 we shall charge as a basis for our course, that King Alcohol, whom we are renouncing, has plundered our seas, ravaged our coasts, and destroyed the lives of our people, and appealing to the supreme judge of the world for the rectitude of our intentions do in the name, and by the idea situation. The Japanese diet has been convoked for December 24. The dispatch of the cruiser Isumo to Mexican waters has attracted much attention and is regarded as signaling the beginning of Japanese participation in the political problems of the west. The Isumo sailed about Nov. 25 for Manzanillo or Salina Cruz by the way of Honolulu.

In connection with the decision of the Japanese government to send the armored cruiser Isumo to Mexican waters it is learned that Baron Makino, the minister of foreign affairs, invited George W. Guthrie, the American ambassador to a conference at which the Mexican situation was discussed. This indication further strengthens the impression that Japan and the United States are working in accord. It was explained yesterday that the dispatch of the Isumo to Mexico was merely to assure protection of Japanese subjects of whom there are about 3000 scattered through Mexico.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Portsmouth, N. H., Nov. 13.—The capture of the Mexican city of Tuxpan by the rebels under General Candido Aguilar was predicted in a radiogram from the United States battleship Louisiana at Tuxpan, which was picked up by a wireless station here today.

The message said that the federal troops were about to abandon the city and that several American women and children, including the daughter of the United States consul had taken refuge on board the Louisiana. The consul refused to leave his post.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Nogales, Sonora, Nov. 13.—With President Wilson in possession today of the answer to the proposition presented yesterday by the American government through William Barard Hale, General Venustiano Carranza, the patriarchal leader of the constitutional revolt against Huerta, awaited today for the word from Washington.

The proposition presented by Hale is understood to have been that the United States would open the border for the constitutionalists to obtain arms if Carranza could guarantee the establishment of order within a reasonable time and the foundation of real representative government. Neither Carranza nor Hale would give any intimation regarding the results of the conference yesterday but it is known that Carranza, who from the first has said intervention by the United States would be a disastrous mistake gave every assurance that the lifting of the embargo on arms was all the American government need do to solve the present chaotic conditions in Mexico.

WHAT TO GIVE HIM FOR A CHRISTMAS GIFT

Useful Offerings That Every Man Is Sure to Appreciate.

A man is only a man after all, and he likes useful gifts, no matter who he may be. If you are wealthy or if your income is quite moderate the following gift suggestions may be adopted, as they are things that may cost only a little or may be quite expensive.

It is rather curious that woman's one idea of a gift to a man is a cravat, for it is the one thing that a man detests having selected for him. But a man can nearly always wager that a woman will get him a cravat of a color that is not becoming to him or one that is too absurd to wear. And yet hundreds of thousands of women insist upon giving cravats for Yuletide gifts!

If you are overpowered by this idea please have a little mercy on mankind and select black and white cravats, for they are smart and are becoming to every man. Silk knitted ties are again in vogue, especially those that are three to four inches wide. Ties of heavy faconne silks are also indorsed by London.

Something Unique In Handkerchiefs. Handkerchiefs are always welcomed by a man if you give him plain white and do not attempt to choose colors for him unless you are his wife and know absolutely whether he prefers blue, lavender, green, gray or another color. To make the handkerchiefs more gifty have his initials embroidered in a unique design.

LACE AND EMBROIDERED INITIAL.

The handkerchiefs in the cut are exceedingly new and attractive. The initial is worked on a square of lace in fillet design. If one is not expeditious with the needle the all over fillet net in fine mesh could be purchased and cut up into the required size for the squares.

Leather Gifts.

It is nearly always a man's fate to receive an abundance of unnecessary leather articles at Yuletide. There are men who never fail to get at least six leather mounted desk calendars and as many stamps and elastic bandboxes. Of course these are needful, but the man who possesses a desk generally has all such articles.

Wallets and cardcases are always usable, and a man is pleased if he gets them in the latest styles every Christmas.

A leather traveling case makes a delightful gift if it is of the best quality—not all the investment in the cage.

WHISK BROOM AND SCISSORS CASE.

Ant in the fittings too. It reflects better taste if you give a small and beautifully fitted case rather than one filled with a shoddy toilet collection and a cleaning up apparatus.

A fitted traveling bag makes a superior gift if you wish to expend that much money—$25 or more. If so, it is advisable to get ivory, imitation ivory or ebony fittings, as they are not quite so heavy as those of silver. The man who travels will be pleased to death with the neatly put up leather case seen in the illustration that is filled with scissors of different sizes and a penknife. And for the man who rides horseback what more appropriate than the whisk broom holder mounted in a stirrup setting?

ELY'S CREAM BALM OPENS CLOGGED NOSTRILS AND HEAD-CATARRH GOES

Instantly Clears Air Passages; You Breathe Freely, Nasty Discharge Stops, Head Colds and Dull Headache Vanish.

Get a small bottle anyway, just to try it—Apply a little in the nostrils and instantly your clogged nose and stopped-up air passages of the head will open; you will breathe freely; dullness and headache disappear. By morning the catarrh, cold-in-head or catarrhal sore throat will be gone.

End such misery now! Get the small bottle of "Ely's Cream Balm" at any drug store. This sweet, fragrant balm dissolves by the heat of the nostrils; penetrates and heats the inflamed, swollen membrane which lines the nose, head and throat; clears the air passages; stops nasty discharges and a feeling of cleansing, soothing relief comes immediately.

Don't lay awake tonight struggling for breath, with head stuffed; nostrils closed, hawking and blowing. Catarrh or cold, with its running nose, foul mucous dropping into the throat, and raw dryness is distressing but truly needless.

Put your faith, just once—in "Ely's Cream Balm" and your cold or catarrh will surely disappear.

German Cities Are Best Ruled

By T. C. THOMPSON, Mayor of Chattanooga, Tenn.
THE GERMANS ARE AHEAD OF THE UNITED STATES IN MUNICIPAL GOVERNMENT, BUT I THINK WE ARE AHEAD OF FRANCE AND ENGLAND, EXCEPT AS TO GOOD ROADS, WHERE THOSE COUNTRIES EASILY LEAD THE WAY.
The German idea is to get the BEST MAN FOR THE JOB IRRESPECTIVE OF PARTY and then to keep him at it. The municipal authorities in Berlin have just ordered seven thousand metal boxes to be put in the ground for the reception of street refuse, which can be raised and put into the carts by small cranes worked by the driver. London has improved much in the conditions of its streets.
We shall never be able to develop our cities like they do in Germany while the municipal government is HAMPERED IN ITS ACTIONS BY THE STATE LEGISLATURE.

LOUIS CARLISLE FOUND DEAD IN HIS APARTMENTS

Louis Carlisle, 41 years old, son of Alexander Carlisle, residing in the Sharon Valley road west of Newark, was found dead in his room over the U. G. Gregg saloon at Eleventh and West Main streets late Wednesday afternoon.
The discovery was made after a number of telephone calls had been received by Mr. Gregg for Carlisle. Gregg was finally requested to investigate the man's continued silence and after opening the door with a pass key, Carlisle's body was found lying on the floor close to the stove.
The gas lights in the room were burning and the small gas stove was turned on full force and the room was intensely hot. People who were in the room declare that the walls were so hot that they were uncomfortable when touched with the bare hand.
The cause of Carlisle's death has not been definitely determined. His friends cling to the theory that he died from gas poisoning, having been overcome by the fumes from the open stove. Others declare that his mouth and lips were discolored and burned, indicating that his death followed the drinking of a poisonous draught.
To an Advocate reporter, members of his family state that he has been in ill health for several years, suffering from asthma. It is their theory that he became ill after going to his room and that he was unable to save himself from the poisonous fumes.
Carlisle has been employed at the Barker meat market in Union street for several months, where he worked at his trade as a meat cutter. He occupied the room over the saloon for several months.
He is a native of Licking county, having been born near Kinkersville 41 years ago. He has been well known about Newark, having worked in various local meat markets at different times.
He was a member of the Utica Lodge of Eagles, and the secretary of that order has been notified of his death.
He leaves a wife and two daughters living in Utica, his father and mother, and two brothers, Perry and John H., the latter a telegraph operator at Utica.
Following the discovery of the body, the coroner was notified and reached the room about 5 o'clock, having been taken to the scene in the Bazler & Bradley ambulance. The condition of the body after lying all day in the overheated room, made it imperative that it be removed at once to the morgue.
Thursday it was removed to the home of the parents west of the city where funeral services will be held. Interment will be made in Cedar Hill cemetery, though no definite arrangements have been made for the funeral and interment.
It cost Mayor-elect R. C. Bigbee the expenditure of just $122 to engineer the campaign which won for him the mayoralty of Newark, according to his expense account, filed Thursday with Clerk Michael Sachs of the county board of deputy state supervisors of elections. Bigbee says he received no contributions. Mayor Swartz received $100 in contributions from friends, and expended $188.
William C. Miller, treasurer of the Republican city executive committee, reported expenditures of $596.20 in behalf of the party's city candidates.
Friday is the last day for candidates to file their expense accounts with the clerk of the election board as provided by law. Those who filed accounts Thursday reported expenditures as follows:
W. C. Christian, board of education, $35.47.
Cliff Frye, city treasurer, $16.50.
Joseph N. Pugh, township treasurer, $10.
William Holler, Sr., township trustee, $2.60.
M. R. Scott, township clerk, $4.50.
A. Nelson Dodd, city auditor, $147.58.
William Wulfoop, city auditor, $128.50.
Julius Juch, councilman-at-large, $12.60.
E. H. Franklin, fifth ward councilman, $3.50.
C. F. Legge, councilman-at-large, $14.50.

GRANDLE WILL HELP TO MAKE CENTERBURG DRY

Centerburg will be a mighty "dry" spot from this time on, as Frank A. Grandle, druggist there, stated, through his lawyers, Messrs. Waight & Moore, in common pleas court at Mt. Vernon Wednesday morning that he intends to quit handling liquor and to ship back any that he has on hands and to surrender his government license. On Monday Druggist Grandle entered a plea of not guilty to each of four indictments charging the unlawful sale of intoxicating liquor as a beverage and failing to keep a correct record of same. Wednesday he appeared before Judge Fulton and withdrew his former plea, immediately entering a plea of guilty to the second count in each indictment. Judge Fulton imposed a fine of $50 and costs in each case.
Dr. Waldo E. Merriman, Centerburg physician, was also in court. He pleaded guilty to unlawfully issuing prescriptions for intoxicating liquor, and was fined $250 and costs.
Mr. Grandle formerly conducted a drug store in the Union block and in the room now occupied by McCann's saloon in West Main street. He has been a druggist in Centerburg for more than two years.

BANKING FIRM FAILS TODAY IN NEW YORK CITY

(Associated Press Telegram)
New York, Nov. 12.—The suspension of B. H. Hollins & Co., the banking and brokerage firm, was announced on the stock exchange this afternoon. The firm organized more than twenty years ago, was one of the best known in the financial district. It had large interests in Mexico and represented in this city several of the largest financial institutions of that country.
Harry B. Hollins, senior member of the firm, was for many years a close social and business intimate of the late J. P. Morgan.

Among his other business intimates was William K. Vanderbilt, who was associated with the Hollins firm for some time in its Mexican enterprises.
An involuntary petition in bankruptcy was filed against the firm in the United States court shortly after the suspension was announced, by three creditors with claims aggregating the small amount of $661. The petition set forth that the firm's liabilities amounted to $5,000,000 with assets of some $50,000. The petition stated that the failure was due to the withdrawal of large deposits which impaired the firm's capital. A. Leo Feyer, it was appointed receiver under a bond of $25,000.
The firm of H. B. Hollins & Co. was composed of Harry B. Hollins, Bernard J. Burke and Britton M. Busch. Mr. Busch was the board member of the firm. The firm was organized October 1, 1892, and maintains a branch office in Berlin.
Mr. Hollins is prominent socially and a member of many clubs. Recently he leased his Fifth avenue house to Mrs. John Astor. Beekman, Henken & Grissom, attorneys for the suspended firm, issued the following statement:
"The failure was due to the withdrawal of large deposits, thus greatly reducing the firm's working capital, which is largely invested in securities which could not be readily sold in the present market."

Today in Pugilistic Annals

1886.—John L. Sullivan knocked out Paddy Ryan in 3rd round at San Francisco. Four years before Sullivan had won the world's championship by whipping the redoubtable Paddy in 4 rounds at Mississippi City. In one of the most tremendous fights on record, Paddy, a native of Tipperary, Ireland, was a giant in strength, and in the first bout he gave the Boston Strong Boy a hard tussle. Ryan was in his thirty-third year, and on the down grade, when he tried to "come back" against John L. in San Francisco. Sullivan was then twenty-eight. The champion had no trouble in proving his superiority over the ex-champion.
1908.—Ad Wolgast defeated Bud Robinson in 10 rounds at Los Angeles.
1910.—Frankie Conley and Abe Attell fought 15-round draw at New Orleans.
1911.—Carl Morris defeated Denver Jack Geyer in 9 rounds at New York.

Vivisection Is Worse Than Horrors of the Inquisition

By W. R. BRADSHAW of the New York Anti-vivisection Society
THE vivisector is a torturer WORSE THAN THOSE WHO PERFORMED HORRORS DURING THE MIDDLE AGES.
The public is so stupefied and doped and duped with misrepresentation and fraud regarding the alleged benefits of vivisection that there is no moral energy left to believe the truth when it comes along.
THE WORK OF VIVISECTORS IS WORSE THAN THE HORRORS OF THE INQUISITION OR THE PRACTICE OF THROWING BABIES INTO THE FLAMING FURNACES OF MOLOCH.
It is WORSE THAN WHAT HAS GONE BEFORE, not merely by reason of the greater tortures to sensitive life, but because it is done with an intelligence fully awake to the horrors of past ages and with a curse on its lips for historic infernalities.
Vivisection demoralizes the vivisector by putting into his hands the godlike powers of life and death over the subhuman tribes of life. The mere possession of this power leads to its exercise, and its exercise HARDENS HIS HEART. Like Belshazzar in the halls of Babylon, there are NO LIMITS TO HIS INSANE ORGIES.
Vivisection not only is a curse to the animals and to their vivisectors, but it is also a CURSE TO SOCIETY ITSELF. The lust for the lives of animals is inculcated in the schools, preached in the churches, praised by the physician in his daily rounds, and the purchased sheets of the press howl for the glory of the MOST SICKENING AND USELESS OF TORTURES.

MUSTEROLE Loosens Up Congestion From Colds

Just rub it briskly on the chest and throat tonight, and get the soothing relief this clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard, gives. The old-time mustard plaster used to blister. MUSTEROLE doesn't. That's why millions are now using it with such comforting results. It breaks up a cold quicker than any mustard plaster you ever saw.
Best for Sore Throat, Bronchitis, Tonsillitis, Croup, Stiff Neck, Asthma, Neuralgia, Headache, Congestion, Pleurisy, Rheumatism, Lumbago, Pains and Aches of the Back.

or Joints, Sprains, Sore Muscles, Bruises, Chilblains, Frosted Feet, Colds of the Chest (it prevents Pneumonia).

At your druggist's, in 25c and 50c jars, and a special large hospital size for $2.50. Sold by druggists everywhere. Accept no substitute. If your druggist cannot supply you, send 25c or 50c to the MUSTEROLE Company, Cleveland, O., and we will mail you a jar, postage prepaid.
Miss M. Speers, Graduate Nurse St. Petersburg, Florida, says: "I have found it excellent for everything that has anything to do with colds or rheumatic affections. I am a professional nurse and this product is better than anything I ever saw."
